Reading in a Winter Wonderland

2013 Adult Winter Reading Program — Wilsonville Public Library

Frequently Asked Questions

What is it?
An opportunity for adults to read books and win prizes this winter.

Who can participate?
Adult Clackamas County library card holders. If you don't have a library card, just ask at the Circulation Desk and we will help you get one.

What can I read?
Any book or audiobook that you want to read!

How do I sign-up?
There is no sign-up.

So what do I do?
Read! Choose how you want to play: Tic-Tac-Toe, or Book Reviews, or both!

Pick up a Tic-Tac-Toe and read 3 books in the different categories to make three squares in a row. When you have a completed a Tic-Tac-Toe, turn it in at the Library. Each Tic-Tac-Toe you turn in will give you another entry in the Grand Prize Drawing.

Share your thoughts about the books you read, and get entered into a separate prize drawing, with a Book Review. Each Book Review you turn in will give you another entry into the Book Review Prize Drawing.

When are the Prize Drawings?
The Grand Prize Drawing and the Book Review Prize Drawing will be held Tuesday, March 12th. The Grand Prizes are a Kindle Touch and a Dinner and a Movie ($75 gift certificate to Abella Italian Kitchen and $25 gift card to Regal Cinemas). Both prizes are valued at approximately $100. The Book Review Prizes are $25 gift certificates to Barnes and Noble.

If you have any further questions, call the Library at 503-682-2744 or come see us at the Circulation Desk.
